

I will start with my own introduction to give you a real example of what should you do

My Name is Ahmed Shahin

I got my bachelors' degree in business Administration because I love business, I also got my masters in business.

I'm a certified business & career coach, coached hundreds of Company employees & Leaders. I've been in the business, learning & development fields for more than 14 years training & developing more than 50,000 employees in Egypt & Gulf.

I started my career journey as a trainer at one of the top multinational companies then after 2 years of delivering technical trainings, I got promoted and took my second move as a senior trainer to deliver soft skills trainings and start practicing my new skill as an instructional designer.

After three more years of delivering more than 30 training tool kits, I got promoted as a senior L&D Consultant to start taking higher responsibilities of conducting the business needs analysis and designing the learning journeys & solutions for the company employees and leaders.

That was the first part of my own introduction, Don't copy my intro or any other intros and please start creating your own using the below simple template:

- My Name is.....
- I got my bachelors' degree in..... from ..... University
- I'm a certified ..... (Fill this part with your educational background and gained accreditations or certifications.
- I started my journey as ..... at ..... (the name of the company) Naming one of your achievements highlights there.
- Then I moved to ..... to take my new role as..... achieving.....(Mention part of your achievements)

If you have any question, feel free to drop me a message on any of my social media platforms
For more Career Tips Follow me on all social media @AhmedShahinOfficial